We are...

- Hudson Fuggle – a small, beautifully-formed team who are committed to making brands work better.
- A potent mix of designers, writers, strategists, filmmakers and a social team with a fast-growing reputation.

Why work with us?

- We love what we do – and where we do it. We're SE1 born and bred.
- Our work has been winning awards since we started.

We're offering...

- A chance for you to grow in a supportive environment.
- A step up, with the opportunity to manage your own projects.

You'll be...

- A strategic thinker, with a passion for the craft and a keen eye for detail.
- Ready for your next challenge, with around two years of agency experience.

You'll have...

- A BA/MA in a design-based subject
- Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign – and that's just for starters.

Key responsibilities

- To respond creatively to client briefs, thinking around what's being asked, and challenging where appropriate.
- To work both individually and as a team member on projects of all sizes across print, digital, film and social.
- To develop brands across all channels, whilst actively managing your own design projects and liaising directly with clients on a daily basis.
- To accurately brief, project manage and direct external resources (filmmakers, printers, photographers, copywriters).
- To help maintain and raise our own creative standards across all areas of our work
- To carry out project management and administrative duties effectively and efficiently (e.g. timesheets, liaising with clients, print/merchandise companies). We run a tight ship.
